

PETER AMBLER.

MARCH 5, 1840.

Read, and laid upon the table.

Mr. DOAN, from the Committee on Invalid Pensions, submitted the following

REPORT:

The Committee on Invalid Pensions, to whom was referred the petition of Peter Ambler, make the following report:

That the committee are of opinion that the petitioner does not sustain his claim to a pension by the necessary evidence, and therefore report adversely to the petitioner.

Blair & Rives, printers.

PETER AMBLER

MARCH 5, 1846.
Read, and laid upon the table.

Mr. Doan, from the Committee on Invalid Pensions, submitted the following

REPORT:

The Committee on Invalid Pensions, to whom was referred the petition of Peter Ambler, make the following report:

That the committee are of opinion that the petitioner does not sustain his claim to a pension by the necessary evidence, and therefore report adversely to the petitioner.

John A. Hayes, printer.